*A shoot will come from the stump of Europe,
A new community will sprout from its roots,*

It will not judge according to the stock markets, Neither will it submit to bankers' orders.

*To the young it will give hope,
To the poor a place of choice.*

Peoples will live together without fearing loss of their identity,

*The refugee will be secure in his host village,
The migrant will no longer be harassed,*

The South will no longer be subject to destruction to satisfy the North,

Because the continent will be filled with the knowledge of the Lord,

As the waters cover the sea.
